

ABSTRACT

A backflow prevention system that helps prevent contamination of potable water distribution systems from backflow at fire hydrant connections.